

Bubbly memories treasured

Are you the nostalgic type who squirrels away champagne caps from significant milestones? Jewellery designer Kiron Barui was, so under her Aussie-made label Wearing Memories, she turned them into bespoke creations set in sterling silver (or gold by request). Exclusive to Crown Perth's La Vie Champagne Lounge (although you can find a selection at Harrods and Flute bars, New York), next time you pop a bottle of Pol or Bolly consider transforming the cap into a stunning pearl-strung locket, custom ring or cuff set. Visit wearingmemories.com.